Anne M. Gannon, Michele Poole and Jane Kreuzler-Walsh will receive top honors May 2 at the Women in Leadership Awards luncheon hosted by the Executive Women of the Palm Beaches.

The women represent public sector, volunteer and private sector categories.

Gannon is the first woman tax collector in Palm Beach County and a former state representative. Poole owns North Ridge Electric Inc. and was named the 2012 Advocate of the Year, National Center on Shaken Baby Syndrome. Kreuzler-Walsh is a board-certified appellate lawyer and heads an all-woman law firm, Kreuzler-Walsh, Compiani and Vargas, which won the 2012 Athena Business Award for mentoring women.
