FLORIDA STATUTE

205.162 Exemption allowed certain disabled persons, the aged, and widows with minor dependents.

(1) All disabled persons physically incapable of manual labor, widows with minor dependents, and persons 65 years of age or older, with not more than one employee or helper, and who use their own capital only, not in excess of $1,000.00, shall be allowed to engage in any business or occupation in counties in which they live without being required to pay for a business tax receipt. The exemption provided by this section shall be allowed only upon the certificate of the county physician, or other reputable physician, that the applicant claiming the exemption is disabled, the nature and extent of the disability being specified therein, and in the case the exemption is claimed by a widow with minor dependents, or a person over 65 years of age, proof of the right to the exemption shall be made. Any person entitled to the exemption provided by this section shall upon application and furnishing of the necessary proof of aforesaid, be issued a receipt which shall have plainly stamped or written across the face thereof the fact that it is based under this section, and the reason for the exemption shall be written thereon.

(2) In no event under this or any other law shall any person, veteran or otherwise, be allowed any exemption whatsoever from the payment of any amount required by law for the issuance of a receipt to sell intoxicating liquors or malt and vinous beverages.
